

Faradarmani Practitioner Certificate

A lock of the Beloved's hair catches me in the snare of love

Anyone not caught in this snare is outside of this Sublime Story

-Sa'adi

This is to certify that has connected to the Interuniversal Consciousness and acquired the Protective Layer for the Faradarmani Halqeh (Link); recognizes the value of this Link; and has committed to using this Link only for the purpose of personal and collective wellbeing. This connection to the Interuniversal Consciousness and the knowledge attained through this connection is intended to be practiced to further humanitarian objectives; to support the harmony of both the manifest and unmanifest aspects of the universe; and in the course of service to Collective Consciousness.

Wishing you absolute well-being and awareness,

Causes of Disconnection from the Interuniversal Consciousness and Protective Layer

Dear Student,

Here below are the Causes of Disconnection from the Interuniversal Consciousness and Protective Layer. Review these points carefully so as to prevent any possible complications and/or difficulties facing yourself or others resulting from the practice of Faradarmani.

It is worth remembering that if any of the violations listed below are committed, the Link and the Protective Layer may not be disconnected. However, it is possible that in some cases of violation where there is no disconnection, due to the discretion of Interuniversal Consciousness itself, the fullness of the connection in all its wisdom becomes partially inaccessible. The violations are:

A. Any and every attempt that hinders the evolution of the Collective Consciousness, and deters from the guidance & direction of others towards Interuniversal Consciousness, such as:

- Refraining from, and/or procrastinating in sharing pertinent information/awareness with other interested people, thus depriving them from getting acquainted with and connected to the Interuniversal Consciousness and benefitting from its capabilities.

- Presenting faulty and/or misleading information, including claiming that the individual Interuniversalism practitioner has gained such abilities via a particular relation with divine people (saints). These claims distance and discourage enthusiastic people from the universal ease of access to the Interuniversal Consciousness and its capabilities. It is necessary to make it clear to others that they can simply and easily access connection to Interuniversal Consciousness.

- Utilizing the Interuniversal Consciousness and its impressive powers for the purposes of showing off, displaying power, boosting one's ego, or otherwise drawing focus toward the autonomous power of an individual rather than the source of that power. These acts distract from the path of collective enlightenment.

B. Any application or usage against the interests of humanity, such as:

- The tendency for misusing the potentials of Interuniversal Consciousness towards investigation and infiltration of the affairs of others; reading minds; accessing the private & personal information of others; causing them material and/or non-material harm; standing opposite to the Natural Law by not following the principle "never wish for others what you do not wish for yourself"; and not respecting the rule of "earthly affairs are bound by earthly rules."

- Discrimination or prejudice in offering the Interuniversal Consciousness services to other people.

C. Any application or usage against the integrity of the Interuniversal Consciousness Network, such as:

- Holding any disrespect or ingratitude towards the Network after clearly getting positive results and/or practical proof.

- Concealing one's discoveries in this regard, thus resulting in obscuring from others the potency and functionality of the Network; suggesting that any benefit clearly received from the network have their source elsewhere.

- Any misuse in the name of Interuniversal Consciousness

- Putting forth any names or titles (even of saints and holy people) in place of, and/or on behalf of Interuniversal Consciousness Network.

It is highly recommended to immediately inform your Tutor (or any other Interuniversalism Tutor) of experiencing any disconnection from the Protective Layer, and abandon all activities or involvement in this regard, until further notice.

Wishing you absolute well-being and awareness

Mohammad Ali Taheri
